Solo Classic 15.6" Leather CheckFast Rolling Overnighter Case

"As the owner of LaptopMD [a computer repair service in New York] and a frequent traveler, I look at bags differently than most people. It's all about ensuring the safety of your laptop. Right now, the best laptop bag for a business professional is this classic roller case from Solo ($170). Because it's a rolling case, I don't have to lug it on my shoulder, which is cumbersome. There are smaller pockets in the front for my knick-knacks. That gives me extra assurance when I'm going through TSA and want to put my watch or something in my bag. This is a sturdy bag, without a huge abundance of pockets I'll never use." — Arthur Zilberman, CEO, LaptopMD
